

Global child mortality

The share of newborns who die or survive the first five years of life.

